

ANDREW “JACK” CRANDELL

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science – Industrial and Manufacturing Systems Engineering – University of Missouri at Columbia (2016)

WORK HISTORY:

October 2022 – Present.

Consultant – The Sage Group – Denver, Colorado

December 2019 – October 2022

Project Manager – Weifield Group – managed a range of contracts from small time & material projects to $5,000,000, utilizing earned value management practices to accurately forecast field productivity and associated costs, proactively manage project team including Project Engineers, superintendents, subcontractors and vendors.

May 2017 – December 2019:

Project Engineer – Sachs Electric - Execute projects for long term Ameren contract. Day-to-day job responsibilities include: small project estimation, document control, submittals, RFI's, cost projections, subcontract management and material requisitions.

Summer 2015

Agile Operations Team Intern – Aldridge Electric - Delivered assistance to Aldridge key areas—data entry, analysis, field work, administration, scheduling—as part of its Agile Construction steering committee. Drove continuous improvement efforts and optimization of real-time reporting and analysis, pre-job planning, and industry best practices.