

TUCKER DEZELAN

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science – Building & Construction Management – Purdue University (2014)

WORK HISTORY:

October 2022 – Present.

Consultant – The Sage Group – Denver, Colorado

June 2021 – September 2022

Project Manager – Alcorn Construction, Inc. – responsible for managing the design-build process in coordination with the preconstruction department. Responsible for Owner, Consultant and Trade Partner contract, change and relationship management, for creating and managing construction schedules and procurement process for assigned projects, etc.

September 2020 – June 2021:

Construction Project Manager – Downtown Property Services, LLC – responsible for contracted General and Electrical self-perform construction work, preconstruction services from concept to contract, turnkey project delivery inclusive of budget management, change processing, payment, contracting, project supervision, project coordination, RFIs, submittals, scheduling, etc.

September 2019 – September 2020

Project Engineer – Encore Electric, Inc. – assisted with bid proposal and quotation review for subcontractor and material vendor selection. Responsible for drafting and issuing subcontracts and purchase orders. Managed change process including change order pricing and submission, etc.

November 2017 – August 2019

Project Engineer – Saunders Construction - Responsible for field coordination and problem resolution of subcontractor activities through project completion and punch list. Scheduled and managed warranty process. Participated in subcontractor change pricing and change orders.

January 2015 – April 2016

Project Coordinator/Estimator – Olson Plumbing and Heating Company

January 2015 – April 2016

Project Engineer – GE Johnson Construction Company