

SAVANNAH KLEYLA

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science – Construction Management – Boise State University (2019)

WORK HISTORY:

July 2022 – Present.

Consultant – The Sage Group – Denver, Colorado

December 2019 – July 2022

Office Engineer – Hensel Phelps – develop and implement plans for buyout and preconstruction, compose and review contracts, manage and review submittals and deliverables, perform material and construction inspection, process pay applications, write and coordinate all RFIs and change orders.

Field Engineer – Hensel Phelps – perform layout and surveying for self-work and trade partners, gather quantities of work and assist with cost controls, quality checks on rebar, concrete, CFMF, glazing, masonry and site work, etc.

August 2019 – December 2019:

Project Engineer – Wright Brothers – directly responsible for take-off, estimating and bidding of projects between $50k - $100k, prepares written scope and issue/execute subcontract agreements, assists in creating schedules for renovations and tenant improvements.

May 2019 – August 2019

Project Engineer Intern – GH Phipps – assisted with $32 million ground up project at Denver Botanic Gardens, helped managed a $6 million historical and occupied space renovation, created and maintained procurement logs and lead time on all materials.

October 2015 – May 2019

Intern/Field Engineer/Project Engineer – CM Company, Inc. – assisted with Boise Zoo renovations and expansions with 10 new structures and new and existing UGUs, verified and documented field work and managed SWPPP, responsible for creating and documenting RFIs.